

"The Lady, Her Lover And Her Lord" Book Study Course

Lesson #3--Her Lord

Chapter12: "Embracing Her Lord"

1. Are you living a God-centered life? Or, do you resist because you are afraid He will mistreat you as men in your life have?
2. Do you attend a church? Do you have friends who share your faith? Do you frequently worship or discuss God with these people?
3. How do you compare to the description of Sarah's daughter?

Chapter 13: "Lord of Her Past"

1. Are you withdrawing from God because of something in your past that you fear makes you unworthy? Read the book of Hosea...it will show you no one is too bad, sinful, evil, etc. for God not to love. List notes of your findings below...
2. Can you turn to God now with the pain of your past? He wants to help you move on. Write Scriptures regarding freedom from pain, how you are made complete in Him, your value as a child of God.

Chapter 14: "Serving the Lord and Making the Money"

1. Is God or money your top priority in life? Explain.
2. In what ways are you creative? How can you enjoy this gift more often, or help it grow?
3. How do you see yourself? Smart? Successful? Lazy? Stupid? List some adjectives to describe yourself.
4. Write a few Scriptures about how God enables you to do what He called you to do, such as Philippians 4:13 and Psalms 1:3.

Chapter 15: "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep"

1. After reading the story of when the author's mother in-law passed away, do you see any times when you have relied on your husband, friends, etc. to heal you when only God could?
2. How can you remind yourself to run to God instead of people in times of need?
